

Name: _____

Block: _____

I Am Canadian Assignment

Task: You are going to complete your own Canadian story. You need to explain how you came to Canada, whether you were born somewhere else or your great great great grandparents came here. It should be a narrative (like a story) but can start anywhere you like. Here is an example of how you could start:

Example 1: Canada has long been my home. Well, actually all my life. My parents were the ones who had to work to get here. My father grew up in Hong Kong and left for university in New York. There he met my Mother, who grew up in Brooklyn. After they married they pursued their dream of moving to the Canadian Pacific west coast...

Example 2: My family has lived in Belo Horizonte, Brazil, for many generations. I went to elementary school there and completed 2 years of high school. I studied English, and enjoyed it so much that my family and I decided that I should attend a high school in Canada for one year. In July, 2011, I flew to Vancouver and was picked up at the airport by my friendly homestay family...

Have fun with it and try to write 300 words!

1) Brainstorm in the space below:

2) Complete your response on a separate piece of paper